A PERSONAL LETTER FROM THE COMMANDER

Sir Knights:

While our Annual Inspection is the culmination of the year, it is not by any means the end of the year, and we have other events coming, of interest to the Sir Knights of Calvary.

One of these is a trip for over St. John's Day — June 24, 1929. It is still too early to say much about this, for the details are now being worked out. But I can say this, that it will be — if enough want it to make its undertaking worthwhile — like those famous family pilgrimages for which Calvary was noted some years since. The older Sir Knights among us still remember them with great pleasure, I find. You will get details in your next notice, but meantime keep June 24th, and the calender in its vicinity — open. This will be a real party.

Meanwhile, make every effort to come to Inspection and by your presence encourage your Officers and Guard, who have been giving their time freely throughout the year. There is nothing more inspiring than such a manifestation of the Calvary spirit. I know we can depend on you for Aprll 16th.

THE COMMANDER

We Need YOU

Tuesday Evening, April 16th

ANNUAL INSPECTION

Our marking by the Inspecting Officer is directly affected by our attendance of Sir Knights in full Templar Uniform. Calvary in other years has had an inspiring turn-out of its members. Help to maintain our average. Come and be counted. You need not stay unless you choose. Come direct from office or shop. Buffet lunch will be ready in the Banquet Hall from 5:30 to 7:00 o'clock. No charge.

At 7:00 the Commandery will reconvene and the Count will be made. Be there in full Templar Uniform, Cape, Black Shoes, White Gloves or Gauntlets.

For Calvary!

— Turn over, please
